

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The cataloguing of current accessions has been kept up to date, and a number of pamphlets and college memorabilia volumes not before recatalogued, have been entered on the new cards. The cataloguing record for the year shows 1019 titles catalogued and 3205 cards typewritten and filed.

The Librarian's desk and the catalogues have been moved to the West Room of the Library, where the catalogues have been placed in new cases. This West Room is now arranged as a reference room, containing the encyclopædias, dictionaries, gazetteers, and maps. The best dictionaries and encyclopædias have been acquired where not already on the shelves, and an equally representative map collection is being made.

The volumes in the Library have been completely rearranged, so as to facilitate their easy location from the class numbers on the catalogue cards.

The process of discarding duplicates and books, pamphlets and periodicals of no longer use in the Library, has been going on throughout the year. To Columbia University Library were given 775 vols., 445 pamphlets, and the old files of 84 college periodicals. To the New York Public Library were sent 318 vols. (mostly club catalogues), 714 pamphlets, and 16 periodical files. The space that this material took up was needed to accommodate the growth of the Library.

Additional shelving, adding 1400 volumes to the capacity of the Library, was erected in the Writing Room.

The demand for novels and other books of ephemeral character will continue to be supplied by subscription libraries. The deliveries are made on Tuesdays of each week. Orders for books should be left at the Librarian's desk.

The current issues of the catalogues of American and foreign booksellers and publishers are now kept on file.

Members using the Library for investigation and study have the privilege of drawing on the resources of the Columbia University Library (363,000 vols.) and the collections of many universities and other libraries, as announced in circular letter of March 9, 1904. Requests for books under the above arrangement must be made through the Librarian of the Club. In obtaining volumes from out of town, the cost of expressage, and from New York City libraries, the car fare of messenger, is charged to the account of the member requesting the loan.

Lock boxes in the Writing Room, built for the accommodation of private papers, manuscripts and books, are rented to members at the rate of $6 a year or $1 a month.

The year just past was marked by the completion of the decoration of the Library ceiling. The work was done by Mr. H. Siddons Mowbray of New York and consists of an adaptation of the decorations of Pinturicchio in the Borgia apartments of the Vatican and of original composition, after the style of Pinturicchio, by Mr. Mowbray. Mr. Mowbray was in Rome engaged on the decorations from September, 1902, to May, 1904, and the work in the Library itself was commenced June 7th and completed September 15, 1904.

The decoration comprises the entire surface of the walls, ceilings, and arches above the cornice and is composed of paintings, and panels, and ornament in relief, with the treatment of all in color. Of the paintings the four lunettes in the first, second, fourth, and fifth alcoves are copies of Pinturicchio, as well as are several of the smaller pieces in the vaults and arches. The large end lunettes, the entire central bay, the panels in relief, the ornament of the arches, and the other secondary paintings, are by Mr. Mowbray.
